"THE ANGLE LAMP"

THE LIGHT
THAT NEVER FAILS.

It seems almost incredible that any lamp could be good enough to take the place of electricity on even terms, yet such is the case with the ANGLE LAMP. All over the islands people are throwing away their old lamps and replacing them with this lamp, not merely because it costs about one-tenth as much to maintain (cost is no object to some people), but, being being infinitely cheaper, it is more brilliant and more reliable in the bargain. It is a revelation to every one who uses it, and simply demonstrates that the old-fashioned lamp was a barbarous contrivance. THE ANGLE LAMP never smokes, smells or gives any trouble, is lighted and extinguished as easily as gas, and is the ideal light for every standpoint. We carry these lamps from $5.00 up.

LUAU GREAT SUCCESS

SCENE AT MATERNITY HOME
NOT TO BE FORGOTTEN

Not Only a Financial Success But Above Criticism in Every Detail of Service and Management.

The Maternity Home luau Saturday afternoon and evening was a brilliant success. The management of the affair could not have been improved upon. The spot where it was held was an ideal place for an outdoor fete and the artistic decorations, profuse and beautiful, fluttered in the breeze of a perfect Hawaiian day and night.

The crowds in attendance were good natured and liberal. The patrons found on every hand that care and hard work had been expended to make them happy and contented. The booths drove a rushing trade. The headquarters of Her Majesty Liliuokalani, were the chief attraction to both home people and foreign visitors. Beautiful ribbons, bearing mottoes and the autograph of the ex-Queen were bought in large numbers. The receipts from this source alone was about $500.

The feast was served in the pavilion where well supplied tables were in constant service all afternoon and evening with both Hawaiian prepared and English food. The Shriners and naval officers from vessels in the harbor, saw at the luau a glimpse of the true Hawaiian nature. The loveliness and beauty of the social side of Hawaiian people. Many of the strangers marveled at the orderliness of the scene and wished for the power to describe it to their friends when they get back home.

All afternoon the Hawaiian band under the leadership of Captain Berger rendered good music. The evening came and brought a gay throng to the grounds which had been brilliantly illuminated with every kind of light. The tables were cleared from the broad pavilion and the sweet strains from the Hawaiian quartet called the dancers. The dance was on from 8 to 10 and in the midst of it, the wild hula broke forth. A native maiden in grass skirts with hair flying, glided to the center of the floor and the crowd went wild as she stepped through the measures of the ancient hula.

The receipts of the grand entertainment have not yet been figured but will be somewhere between $2500 and $3000.

The women who had charge of the luau and carried it to so splendid success are shown by the committees as given below:

Executive Committee: Miss Agnes McIntyre, chairman; Mrs. Jas. Campbell, Mrs. J. F. Bowler. This committee had the valuable assistance of Prince David Kawanakoa.

The various tables were managed by the following persons:
1. Prince David Kawanakoa was in charge; 2. Mrs. Irene H. Brown; 3. Mrs. M. Beckley, Mrs. Captain Tripp; 4. Mrs. Charles W. Booth, Mrs. M. Reis; 5. Mrs. Mana and Miss Bush; 6. Mrs. John Colburn. A large number of young ladies assisted in serving the guests.

The foreign lunch table presided over by Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane and Mrs. S. C. Allen; coffee table, Mrs. W. L. Bowler, Mrs. Richards; candy table, Misses Abbie and Alice Campbell; ice cream, Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Mrs. Geo. Herbert, Mrs. Carmichael, Mrs. Noonan; flower table, Miss May Damon, Miss S. Carter; lemonade, Miss R. Nolte, Mrs. Grau; fancy table, Mrs. E. S. Cunha, Mrs. Pierre Jones.

COUSIN'S SOCIETY MEETS.

The meeting of the Cousins' Society at the home of J. B. Atherton on Saturday evening was attended by over 100 persons.

After prayer by Rev. Dr. Van Slyck of Brooklyn, Rev. Thos. L. Gulick of Philadelphia gave an account of his extensive travels in old world lands.

The evening was enlivened by good music.

The society added to its membership, the names of Miss Kate Graydon and J. H. Emerson.

The nominating committee for next year is A. F. Cooke, Mrs. Ellen Weaver and W. W. Hall.

The new appropriation committee consists of Lyle A. Dickey, W. O. Smith and Mrs. L. B. Coan.

An interesting and valuable work is being brought out by the society. It will contain autographs, sketches and portraits of all the early missionary fathers and mothers. It will be copyrighted.

SEATTLE BEER.

The ever popular Rainier beer is becoming a household word and "will you have a glass of Seattle" is more often heard than anything else. The Criterion Saloon has the beer on tap or in bottles.
